THU,

Should the Fermi Surfaces stir, the Sgt should discuss them. Prior to such an eventuality, I noticed several very faint light traces and a dark band in the northeast sky.

6:35 PM - A vertical light trace on the bricks of the Teisch's house. :
A small disturbance on the asphalt of 212nd St. : Some children playing on a lawn.

9:00 PM - Went for a short trip underwater. Exiting. : A yellow fuse with a red center.

11:30 PM - A young black football player pulling cotton out of his mouth after a game. : I was looking for an office. Couldn't find one. : A very large shadow resembling a planet in the southern sky. : A white trace from curb to curb on the asphalt on 212nd St. : Something about watches.

12:45 AM - (L).

3:35 AM - One about an insurance claim which turned out to be small change. : A private pilot. One where I dusted off my Texas Instruments calculator and slide rule. : A surprise on the on the final approach of a landing.

4:25 AM - (☞), (O) in light, the shade in metallic grey. : Some obsolete industrial equipment. : The front view of my 1957 Lancia Aurelia.

6:25 AM - (9) in near UV.

I'll leave the analysis to the Sgt.
