- II A number of responsible analyses have faulted the superpower balance of power construct. Patent award based on the Simi Valley experiment, publication of the Hiawatha Triad, and the advent of the on-line member updated Columbia University alumni directory could combine to enable a remedy. An informal network skilled at creative problem solving enabled by the terms of use of these publications could coalesce into a global parainstitutional organization. This organization, intended to open unexplored avenues required to expedite resolution of open social wounds, may self-extinguish when conventional institutional capabilities have been adjusted. This structure may encourage formation and use of "Communities of Practice" developing peripheral skills.¹

- III A cluster of #10 envelopes acknowledged potential.

- IV The Broadway show "Cats": A drafting board, surface at about 45 degrees: Was traveling at speed. The road gradually deteriorated until it was asphalt on unprepared ground. The right side was sheer sandstone or dirt, the left seemed to be a major highway. The road I was on was about a foot wide at the intersection.
