

Proposition 11
Describe Elements of Society's Dynamics

- I The bathtub filled with black water:

- II Hiawatha Triad fact base; research capabilities, dynamic cognitive communication techniques, and institutional specifications are sufficient to interpret the total history of all Cartesian species from a database derived from "transparent information." Summarizing this material using logic structures characterized by (), (), (), and () may improve predictive capabilities based on historical perspective.

- III Several erasers on my Random House Dictionary and a cluster straws above Bell Blvd. appeared in the Cartesians, acknowledging the potential.

- IV None

Unfinished presentation by author to Time Magazine of a set of indices attempting to show a causal relationship or to dismiss the effect of currency parities on physical volume of export/import trade.
