

8/12

6/11/84
AWO

Tues,

Should the Ferrari surreales stir, the Sgt should discuss them. Prior to such an eventuality, I noticed a black and white soccer ball over the trees on Bell Blvd. in front of the BaySide Federal Bank.

At 8:15 I noticed a skull and bones and another ellipse.

12:45 AM - FA asked me to help him realize a transformer. I thought it would be too late at night. Took a look through a door and saw him precariously climbing a high ladder. Closed the door.

2:20 AM - An argument about the amount of the award on my litigation. I had no basis for an opinion because I didn't know the amount. : A black and white soccer ball. : A house on a hill covered by a large structure.

2:35 AM - A small disturbance on the asphalt of 212nd St. : A small disturbance on the radio speaker.

3:00 AM - (S) : (S) : (S) : (S).

4:13 AM - A wood rimmed steering wheel with chromed wire spokes.

4:15 AM - A chap throwing a Bowie knife at a tree.

5:55 AM - A slave at a pool involving some doctors. Black sneakers with yellow shoelaces stood out. : A baseball with the stitches visible in the arc of a curve.

6:05 AM - A skull and bones.

3292

4/14/64
mm

6:15 AM — A WAVE OF A DISTURBANCE ON THE WHITE BOARDS OF THE TEISEN'S HOUSE. : A SMALL DISTURBANCE ON THE GREEN COVER OF MY (BAYSIDE) BEDSIDE TABLE.

6:47 AM — SOME GENTS WEARING SHORTS. : A HOON SPEAKER.

I'll leave the analysis to the SGT.

Copyright © Paul D. Koster Work in Progress

Paul Koster

MAILED to: Tom Kluender

The Woodsides Grove